PROPOSALS

For PRINTING by SUBSCRIPTION,

A WEEKLY NEWS-PAPER, ENTITLED, THE PENNSYLVANIA PACKET; AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

INSTRUCTION or AMUSEMENT are the points aimed at by Writers of every denomination, in whatever ſphere they move, or whatever rank they hold in the literary world. Under one or other of theſe claſſes, the productions of every Author may be arranged. But as the generality are not at leiſure to make themſelves maſters of any one branch of learning, which can properly be ſtiled a ſcience, much leſs to comprehend the whole body of literature, with all its various revolutions and improvements; the grand object is, to reduce theſe matters into a ſmall compaſs, and to exhibit them to the attention of the public in as cloſe a view as poſſible. He that ſucceeds in performing this taſk, certainly diſcharges an agreeable, if not a very uſeful, office. It is for this reaſon, perhaps, that the modern News-papers, publiſhed upon the preſent improved plan, meet with more univerſal peruſal than the voluminous works of the laborious learned, though of infinitely ſuperior merit, and unſpeakably higher importance.

WITH a view of contributing, in one and the ſame effort, to both theſe deſirable ends of KNOWLEDGE and PLEASURE, the Subſcriber requeſts the indulgent attention of the Public in general, and his Friends in particular, while he offers to their candid conſideration the following CONDITIONS.

I. THE PENNSYLVANIA PACKET, and GENERAL ADVERTISER, ſhall be printed with elegant Types, properly adapted to the various articles of which it may conſiſt; and on Paper, equal in quality and ſize to any News-paper publiſhed in this city.

II. THE freſheſt accounts ſhall be faithfully given of all occurrences, foreign and domeſtic: theſe ſhall be arranged in ſuch order as to furniſh a clear and comprehenſive view of the preſent intereſts, deſigns, intrigues, and politics of every reſpectable State and Potentate in the world.

III. ALL Letters, Eſſays, and Miſcellaneous Pieces, ſent to the Publiſher, that may any way tend to diſcoveries in Science, improvement in the Arts, promoting Manufactures, or encouragement of Agriculture, ſhall be thankfully received and immediately inſerted.

IV. ADVERTISEMENTS, of a moderate length, will be inſerted at Three Shillings each for one week, and One Shilling for each continuance; thoſe of greater length at ſuch proportionable prices as may be reaſonable.

V. THIS Paper ſhall be publiſhed every Monday morning early, and delivered to the Subſcribers in town at their reſpective dwellings. The firſt Number ſhall be given gratis, and printed on Monday the 25th of November next, or ſooner, if ſufficient encouragement ſhould offer.

VI. THE Price to Subſcribers will be Ten Shillings per year.

JOHN DUNLAP.

 SUBSCRIPTIONS are taken in by the Printer hereof.

Now in the Preſs, and will ſoon be publiſhed,

By HENRY MILLER,

Printer, in Race ſtreet, Philadelphia,

A complete German Grammar, in two Parts.

THE Firſt Part, containing true, plain, and eaſy Inſtructions for acquiring fundamentally, in a ſhort Time, the Knowledge and Uſe, both in ſpeaking and writing the GERMAN TONGUE.---The Second Part is enriched with familiar Words, Phraſes, peculiar Expreſſions, proverbial Sentences and Dialogues. To which are added, for further Application, ſeveral Pieces of News, Letters, and ſome moral Pieces, both in Proſe and Verſe: Together with an ample Vocabulary, in Alphabetical Order. By JOHN JAMES BACHMAIR, M. A. This Grammar needs no other recommendatory Panegyric than to ſay, that the Author had Univerſity Learning, and for a great Number of Years, made the teaching of the Engliſh and German Languages, in London, his Profeſſion; in which Time he compoſed and publiſhed this Grammar, as alſo another for the Germans to learn Engliſh; both are univerſally allowed to be the beſt that ever were publiſhed. They have hitherto been imported from England; but the Book is now, and has been for ſome Time, out of print, and there is no Probability of its being ever Re-printed in London; wherefore it has been judged neceſſary to make a new Edition of it in this Country, where it is much wanted.

Since all human Performances are ſubject to Imperfections, Mr. BACHMAIR's Grammar is not ſuppoſed to be Faultleſs: Wherefore, the preſent Editor has not only corrected the Errata of the Preſs, which are found in the London Edition, but alſo, to render it more perfect, the evident Miſtakes which through Inadvertency have eſcaped the Notice of the Author. The preſent Edition will alſo contain ſome uſeful and neceſſary Additions.

Now in the Preſs, and ſpeedily will be publiſhed,

By JOHN DUNLAP,

At the neweſt Printing-Office in Market-ſtreet, Philadelphia,

And will be delivered to the Subſcribers agreeable to the original Propoſals, Price bound Five Shillings,

N. B. As the Liſt of the Subſcribers will be committed to the Preſs in a few Weeks, it is hoped, that all who are deſirous of encouraging this Publication, and who may not yet have ſubſcribed, will ſend their Names, without loſs of Time, to the Printer of this Paper.

On the TWENTIETH Day of next Month will be delivered,

THE FIRST VOLUME OF

VI. This ſplendid and expenſive Work, which will coſt above Fifteen Hundred Pounds, can only be carried into Execution under the Patronage of the Gentlemen of the Law in America, and their liberal Connections in the Country, as well as the capital Cities and Towns on the Continent.

VII. The Names of the Subſcribers will be printed in the fourth Volume.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are gratefully received by the Publiſher, ROBERT BELL, Bookſeller, at the late Union Library, in Third-ſtreet, Philadelphia; and by all the Printers and Bookſellers in New-York, Boſton, Philadelphia, Charles-Town, &c. &c. &c.

To the PUBLIC.

THE Inhabitants of this Continent have now an eaſy and advantageous Opportunity of effectually eſtabliſhing literary Manufactures in the Britiſh Colonies, at moderate Prices, calculated for this Meridian, which will abſolutely and eventually produce mental Improvement, and commercial Expanſion, with the additional Recommendation of poſitively ſaving Thouſands of Pounds to, and among the Inhabitants of the Britiſh Empire in America. Thus, the Importation of One Thouſand Sets of Blackſtone's Commentaries, manufactured in Europe, at Ten Pounds per Set, is ſending very near Ten Thouſand Pounds across the great Atlantic Ocean. Whereas, One Thouſand Sets, manufactured in America, and ſold at the ſmall Price of Three Pounds per Set, is an actual ſaving of Seven Thouſand Pounds to the Purchaſers, and the identical Three Thouſand Pounds which is laid out for our own Manufactures, is ſtill retained in the Country, being diſtributed among Manufacturers and Traders, whoſe Reſidence upon the Continent, of Courſe cauſeth the Money to circulate from Neighbour to Neighbour; and by this Circulation in America, there is a great Probability of its revolving to the very Hands from which it originally migrated.

Gentlemen, who at this Juncture, retain any Degrees of that ancient and noble, but now almoſt exploded Affection, denominated Patriotiſm, and are pleaſed to exemplify it by extending with Celerity their auſpicious Patronage through the cheap Mode of repoſing their Names and Reſidences (no Money expected until the Delivery of an Equivalent) with any Printer or Bookſeller on the Continent, as intentional Purchaſers of any of this Work now Re-printing by Subſcription in America, will render an eſſential Service to the Community, by encouraging native Manufactures, and therefore deſerve to be had in grateful Remembrance by their Country, by Poſterity, and by their much obliged humble Servant, the Publiſher.

ROBERT BELL.

Charles-Town, October 21, 1771.

LONDON, AUGUST 22.

HIS Majeſty has ordered the names of the Earl of Weſtmeath, and William Pole, Eſq; Member for Queen's County, to be ſtruck off the liſt of his Privy Counſellors in Ireland, for their conduct in oppoſing Lord Townſhend during the laſt ſeſſion of Parliament: And the names of the Earl of Granard, who does not live in Ireland, and Lord Sudley (ſon to Lord Arran) to be added to the liſt in their room.

It is now paſt a doubt that the French were the authors of the dreadful fire at Portſmouth. The late enquiry into that affair has produced more good reaſons for this aſſertion than the pretended friends of the enquiry wiſhed. Judge Jefferies, Jemmy Twitcher, and Peg Trentham, three of the moſt abandoned villains in the kingdom, are now ſo well convinced that the French were at the bottom of that affair, that they are for cloſing the enquiry; leſt, as they ſay, it ſhould involve the nation in a war with France. In no inſtance of the wickedneſs of theſe men, is their thorough diſregard for their King and country ſo conſpicuous as in this buſineſs. They are ready enough indeed to hunt a poor printer who is not their match, under a pretence of vindicating the honour of the King, when, in reality, it is only their villainy which he expoſes. But they dare not reſent any open inſult from the public enemy of their country. Corſica, Falkland's Iſland, and the fire at Portſmouth, are eminent proofs that the honour of the King, and the honour of the nation, which ought to be the ſame, have been repeatedly ſacrificed to prevent a war, which this daſtardly conduct only poſtpones, without effecting the earneſt deſire of the King of Spain to ſeize his opportunity of attacking ſome of our poſſeſſions. Judge Jefferies, Peg Trentham, and Jemmy Twitcher, know very well, that whenever a war comes, his Majeſty muſt change his Miniſters; that he will be obliged to form an adminiſtration of honeſt men, in whom the people can confide; and that they then ſhall loſe their ſalaries;----Twitcher will not be able to keep ſo many proſtitutes; Jefferies not to hoard ſo much money; nor Trentham to live ſo extravagantly. Every day gives new proofs that the national honour is degraded, in order to preſerve their own continuance in office; that the uſual reſpect to the Sovereign is loſt in the abhorrence that is every where ſhewn to his Servants; and that it is ridiculous to pretend to piety and virtue, and at the ſame time employ and encourage the moſt profligate and infamous perſons of the age. Such conduct is an inſult upon men of ſound underſtanding; and even with the vulgar, paſſes for a mockery of all religion and principle.

They write from Breſt, that diſpatches had been juſt ſent off to the Governors of the French Weſt-India Iſlands, containing ſome freſh inſtructions concerning the regulation of trade between the ſubjects of France and Great-Britain.

Lord Francis Rawdon is appointed an Enſign in the fifteenth regiment of foot; John Callender, Gent. is appointed a Lieutenant in the fourth regiment of dragoons, commanded by Major General Carpenter; and John Jones, Eſq; is appointed Captain and Lieutenant Colonel in the firſt regiment of foot guards, in the room of Lord Viſcount Ligonier.

AUGUST 23. A letter from Madrid, dated July 13, ſays, "His Majeſty hath declared the port of the city of Forteſa, a free port for importation and exportation; in conſequence of which all ſhips within and without the kingdom may be admitted there. The royal Junto of Health have juſt publiſhed a regulation relative to this ſubject.

They write from Amſterdam, that the collection of pictures of that celebrated connoiſſeur Mr. Brancamp, were lately ſold there for near 253,000 guilders, or 23,000 l. ſterling, which is computed to be 80,000 guilders, upwards of 7000 l. ſterling more than they coſt him. One picture by the celebrated Dow was ſold for 16,500 guilders, or 15,00 l. ſterling. It is aſſured, that the Empreſs of Ruſſia purchaſed lots in this ſale to the amount of upwards of 100,000 guilders.

Letters from Copenhagen mention, that the King of Denmark has publiſhed a proclamation, requiring all perſons who have been uſed to the ſea and are out of his dominion, and in foreign ſervice, to return home by the 22d of January next, on pain of ſuffering perpetual impriſonment, whenever they are taken within his Majeſty's kingdom.

AUGUST 24. We are told on the beſt authority, that Mr. Banks and Dr. Solander's voyage may be made extremely ſubſervient to the purpoſes of navigation. They paſſed through two Straits, which were before unknown. Former ſailors had always doubled the land which contains them, and thereby performed ſeveral hundred leagues more ſailing than, had they known theſe Straits, would have been neceſſary.

Amongſt a number of other curious plants, collected by Mr. Banks and Dr. Solander, they have brought three different ſpecies of the bay or laurel tree, from which camphor is extracted in a very peculiar proceſs, and which they had an opportunity of ſeeing performed at one of the Philippine Iſlands.

It is generally believed, that there will be candidates for the Mayoralty on Michaelmas next. The two ſenior Aldermen, Peers and Naſh, will be ſupported by Adminiſtration; the two late Sheriffs, Townſhend and Sawbridge, by the Shelburn Faction; and the preſent Lord-Mayor with Mr. Alderman Bridgen, by the friends of liberty.

The Chancellor of France has at laſt obtained leave for M. de Voltaire to return to his native country. He is accordingly preparing to ſet out for Paris, where this celebrated genius is now likely to end his days.

The little town of Harlenaſchenhage, on the banks of the river Amſtel, in Holland, is entirely ſwept away by the impetuoſity of the floods, from the breaking in of the dykes.

When the news was brought to Mr. Foote of Sir Francis Blake Delaval's death, he burſt out into tears, and wept inceſſantly the reſt of the day. On Sir Francis being named to Mr. Foote, by ſome ladies in the houſe, he again expreſſed the ſame involuntary overflowings of ſorrow.---You may wonder, ladies, ſays our Ariſtophanes, at this feeling of mine; but Heraclitus himſelf muſt have felt thus at the loſs of ſuch a friend!---theſe tears are but a poor teſtimony of my gratitude for a life of ſervices received from him, and particularly for the tenderneſſes of days and hours at my bed-ſide, when I loſt my limb at the ſeat of Sir Francis's brother, Lord Mexborough."

Private letters from the Hague bring accounts of a terrible inundation, by the overflowing of the river Amſtel above Amſterdam; by which above ſix villages are entirely deſtroyed, and according to a moderate computation upwards of 500 people drowned.

We are informed from very good authority, that certain information has been received of the perſons concerned in ſetting fire to the Dock-yard at Portſmouth, and that ſcouting parties both civil and military are out after them in ſeveral parts of the kingdom, by which means it will be impoſſible for them to eſcape much longer.

The miniſterial and Shelburne factions are already begun canvaſſing among the Livery for the office of Lord-Mayor for the enſuing year, in oppoſition to the preſent Lord-Mayor, who, there is no doubt, will be re-elected.

The diſputes between Government, and the inhabitants of the Savoy, are expected to be adjuſted next term. The former claim it as a reverſionary grant, originally given to one of the younger branches of the Crown; whilſt the latter claim it, principally on the length of occupancy. If government ſhould be ſucceſsful, they intend pulling down all the houſes, and rebuilding it on the plan of the Adelphi, which, no doubt, will be converting a very great nuiſance into a very great ornament.

Robert Haſelar, Eſq; is appointed Captain-Lieutenant, and Lieutenant-Colonel in the firſt regiment of foot guards.

Iſaac Pratvell, Gent. is appointed an Enſign in the firſt regiment of foot guards.

AUGUST 27. Yeſterday morning, at three o'clock, an expreſs arrived at the houſe of Count de Guignes, the French Ambaſſador, in Great George-ſtreet, from France, and at half paſt five the ſame morning his Excellency ſet off for that kingdom.

Count de Guignes, previous to his departure, ſent a meſſage to the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, informing him of his recall.

The abrupt departure of the Spaniſh Ambaſſador occaſions a variety of conjectures.

Orders are ſent to Chatham for finiſhing the ſhips now on the ſtocks at that port, which are to be launched off as ſoon as poſſible. After which they are to be fitted with their lower maſts for the greater convenience of being completely rigged on any emergency.

The Eaſt-India fleet will go out this year much ſooner than laſt, the utmoſt diligence being uſed in fitting out the ſhips taken into their ſervice.

Friday laſt an old woman, and a girl, from Liverpool, were examined at the Secretary of State's office in Cleveland-row, by John Fielding, and the Earls of Rochford and Suffolk, touching the great fire at Portſmouth. The Bloomſbury gang laugh at this buſineſs; and ſay, that the Court of Examination conſiſts of a Magiſtrate without eyes, a Secretary with one eye, (Lord Rochford) and another without a head (Lord Suffolk).

It is agreed on all hands, that the royal navy of this country was never in ſo bad a condition as at preſent. Every mark of reſpect and attention has been ſhewn to the army, and particularly to the guards, for purpoſes which may eaſily be gueſſed; but the navy has been neglected ever ſince the King came to the Crown. In the memory of the oldeſt man living, the yards were never known to be ſo thin of timber as at preſent. Inſtead of 60,000 feet, which even Miniſters confeſs ought to be always in readineſs, there is not 12,000 in all the yards put together.

One of the King's Meſſengers, we are aſſured, with proper attendants, is gone into Scotland, in queſt of ſome capital offenders, and another is diſpatched into the Weſt; and there is great reaſon to believe, that ſome of the perſons concerned in the dreadful fire at Portſmouth, are of the former nation.

We hear a promiſe of the firſt vacant regiment of dragoons, has been given to Colonel Lutterel.

Advices are received of a dangerous inſurrection at Naples, and that a great body of troops have been ſent from Spain to quell the rioters, many of whom are of the firſt quality.

We are aſſured that there is ſuch a ſcarcity of proviſions in the interior parts of Germany, that it is computed in the circle of the Lower Rhine, above nine thouſand perſons have periſhed for want of food.

AUGUST 28. The Biſhop of Oſnaburgh's revenues will, we hear, be laid out at intereſt till the period of his arriving at age; and a correſpondent aſſures us, that the accumulating produce will amount to near two millions; in which caſe, though poſſeſſed of little territory, he will be really richer than the greateſt Sovereign in Europe.

Her Majeſty is again pregnant.

On Monday a man, ſaid to be of ſome repute, ſurrendered himſelf into the cuſtody of the keeper of Wood-ſtreet Compter, as being concerned, with others, in ſetting the Dock-yard of Portſmouth on fire ſome time ago. He was the ſame evening privately examined before the Lord-Mayor, and ordered back for another examination laſt night; but about ſix o'clock yeſterday evening he ſent a note to his Lordſhip, deſiring to be excuſed appearing before him again till this evening, which was granted.

AUGUST 29. His Excellency Count de Guignes, the French Ambaſſador, who ſet out on Monday laſt from hence for France, propoſes to be abſent only for three weeks. The reaſon of his ſudden departure was to attend a trial at Paris, on account of a conſiderable legacy lately left him, at which he is obliged to be preſent.

A letter from Paris, dated Auguſt 20, ſays, "Among the reductions that are making in the troops of this kingdom, there is a talk of ſuppreſſing the Gens d'Armes: This, however, is looked upon as not ſo eaſily practicable, on account of the conſiderable ſums which would be requiſite to reimburſe ſo many of the firſt nobility of the kingdom, who have bought into that choſen corps, which is ſo diſtinguiſhed by the antiquity of its eſtabliſhment, and by its eminent ſervices. It is alſo propoſed to reform all the ſub-lieutenants of infantry; to aſſemble the militia, and form and exerciſe them in the fortified places, three months in every year; and that the officers who are reduced in the infantry, ſhall have commands given them in the militia."

Mr. Banks and Dr. Solander, it is ſaid, have the honour of frequently waiting on his Majeſty at Richmond, who examines their collection of drawings of plants and views of different places.

The entertainment given yeſterday by the Lord-Mayor at the Manſion-houſe to the Goldſmiths and Muſicians companies was very elegant; there were upwards of 100 diſhes, beſides a grand deſert.

The man who ſurrendered himſelf on Monday to the Wood-ſtreet Compter, as being concerned with others in ſetting fire to the dock-yard at Portſmouth, was laſt night brought again for examination before the Lord-Mayor; and it was expected to be late before his examination would be finiſhed, which was in a private room at the Manſion-houſe. It is ſaid he is a priſoner for debt.

It is ſaid, the perſon in cuſtody on ſuſpicion of ſetting Portſmouth dock-yards on fire, has declared that he and others were hired by the French to do it; that a certain Romiſh Prieſt, well known about Portſmouth, was the principal contriver; and that a French frigate lay off Portſmouth-harbour ready to receive him and the other perſons concerned in it. He was viſited on Tueſday by many perſons of note, and ſeveral foreigners, who wanted to converſe with him privately, which the keeper refuſed.

We hear that a few days ſince was preſented to the Honourable the Navy Board, by order of the Right Hon. the Earl of Sandwich, firſt Lord of the Admiralty, two very curious models; one of a floating dock, the other of a ſteering wheel, and received the approbation of the board. They were invented by Lieutenant Henry Savage, of the Royal Navy.

We hear the two vacant governments of Plymouth garriſon and Tinmouth Caſtle, are promiſed to Scotchmen.

AUGUST 31. It is ſaid, that a patent of an Earldom in the kingdom of Ireland, is making out for Lord Clare.

It is ſaid, that Dudley, who has confeſſed his being concerned in the late fire at Portſmouth dock-yard, will ſhortly be ſent down to that place, in order to confront ſome perſons there, ſuppoſed to have been concerned in that tranſaction.

We are informed that the Spaniſh Court have offered the French an extra preſent of 2,000,000 l. beſides the loan of 3,000,000 l. for ten of her third rate ſhips of war.

On Wedneſday night the Right Hon. the Earl of Harcourt, his Majeſty's Ambaſſador at the Court of France, arrived in town from Paris. His Lordſhip was yeſterday at the Court at St. James's, and afterwards had a conference with the King.

It is reported that the workmen of his Majeſty's yards are in general diſſatisfied with giving up their privilege of chips, on having their wages augmented from 2s. 1d. to 2s. 6d. per day, as a great many of them, it ſeems, make more of the wood they bring out than what is equal to five pence per day; and that without the board lets them work extra in the ſummer ſix months, they are determined, one and all, not to give their rights and privileges up, conſidering the riſe of their rents, taxes, and proviſions, ſince their wages were laſt ſettled, which is above one hundred years ago.

Major General Mackay, Colonel of the 21ſt regiment of foot, is appointed Governor of Tinmouth Caſtle.------A Scotchman, as we priditted.

Upon a late calculation, it appears, that within the laſt ſeven years, twelve Scotch to one Engliſhman, have been promoted in the army.

It is ſaid, that the Earl of Harcourt will not return in the ſame character to Paris, as all his baggage is coming away. He is, it is reported, to be appointed Secretary of State, in the room of the Earl of Suffolk, and another Ambaſſador is to be appointed.

We are aſſured, that his Majeſty ſignified his deſire on Thurſday laſt, to the great officers of ſtate, that they would not retire from town to their country ſeats for ſome days to come.

We are now informed, that Colonel Lutterel hath been promiſed the command of the next vacant regiment. And this preferment ſeems very probable, as particular care hath, of late days, been taken to prefer that perſon firſt, who is the moſt odious to the people. This is a very ſtrange plan of policy in government, and can be accounted for no otherwiſe than by ſuppoſing it proceeds from the paſſion of revenge. The people has given the miniſtry many ſufficient proofs, that they hate and deteſt them; and therefore the miniſtry, it ſhould ſeem, take every opportunity of ſhewing the people, how much they deſpiſe and contemn their diſapprobation and reſentment, by picking out for preferment every perſon that hath offended and is deteſtable to them. This is a kind of ruling peculiar to the preſent miniſtry, and may be called the Butean or Carltonian method; but how long will it laſt, and what it will end in, may be eaſily foretold.

SEPTEMBER 2. It may be depended on, that the Miniſtry have hitherto uſed every means in their power to prevent a diſcovery of the authors of the late fire at Portſmouth dock-yard, fearing that on ſuch diſcovery they muſt reſent the conduct of our good friends the French; when they would be no longer able to keep their places, but muſt make room for thoſe who have the confidence of the people, as ſuch Miniſters only can raiſe the proper ſupplies to carry on a war with vigour. Lord Suffolk lately in public threw out an inſinuation that Dudley, now in confinement, had no concern in the conflagration; but that he was employed by the Lord-Mayor and Mr. Wilkes to propagate ſuch report, in order to raiſe a diſturbance in the kingdom. Whether any faith is to be placed in the declaration of the proteſting Lord, the public will determine.

Mr. Dudley, who voluntarily ſurrendered himſelf to the keeper of Wood-ſtreet Compter, is now by permiſſion of the Lord-Mayor, at the lock-up houſe of Mr. Earle, in Wood-ſtreet, Cheapſide. He was again examined on Friday night laſt at the Manſion-houſe by the Lord-Mayor, and is to be further examined to-morrow by the Board of Admiralty; he acknowledges to have been employed to ſet Portſmouth dock on fire by the Court of France, ſix month's before the wicked ſcheme was put into execution.

SEPTEMBER 3. It is ſaid, that Capt. Seally of the Northington Eaſt-Indiaman, has brought over for education a ſon of Heyder Ally, about five years of age.

On Saturday a patent paſſed the Great Seal, confirming the Earl of Suffolk and Berkſhire in the office of Secretary of State for the northern department.

Extract of a Letter to the Printer from Paris, dated Auguſt 25.

"The troops, that ſupport the honour of France, is now become an object of œconomy! A reform of 24,000 men in the infantry, including officers and ſoldiers, has taken place. The Grenadiers of France, the Gendarmery, and the Caribineers, are diſbanded, which makes a diminution of 4000 men in the King's houſhold; a reform of 12,000 men in the cavalry is alſo intended, which in the whole will amount to 40,000 men.

"The ſixty regiments of militia that are diſperſed all over the kingdom, are reduced to forty, which makes another reduction of 10,000 men; ſo that there will remain on foot only 90,000 effective men to face all the forces of Europe. Such an operation denotes a general, univerſal, and perpetual peace, guaranteed by the belligerent powers of Europe."

The cauſe of the French Ambaſſador's ſudden departure from hence, ariſes more from the political convulſions of his own country than this. Being a warm partizan of Choiſeul's party, he has with great difficulty maintained his place ſince the diſgrace of that miniſter, but all hopes of a reconciliation between the King and him being now over, the oppoſite ſide have readily effected Count de Guignie's recall. As to his not taking leave of our Court in form, there was a proper apology for the preſent ſent by the Charge des Affaires.

Colonel Thomas is talked of to ſucceed to the command of the regiment, vacant by General Warburton's death.

A monument will ſhortly be erected in Weſtminſter-Abbey, to the memory of the late ingenious Dr. Parnell, and Dr. Goldſmith, who has written the life of that elegant poet, is to write his epitaph.

CHARLES-TOWN, NOVEMBER 5.

TUESDAY laſt his Majeſty's Packet Boat the Eagle, Capt. William Nicholls, arrived here in 50 Days from Falmouth, and will ſail with the Mails on her Return the 13th Inſtant.
